This signature CCA event brings entrepreneurs and major employers together with public decision-makers and community champions for an evening built around conversation, interactive experiences, curated activations, and open networking moments that spark real relationships and meaningful collaborations.

Sponsors don't just place a logo — they become part of the experience, with opportunities to connect directly with leaders who shape policy, business, and culture across the region. Treasures of Los Angeles is where influence, ideas, and opportunity come together to make an impact.

PROJECTED ATTENDANCE: 600+

AUDIENCE: Senior leaders and public officials from a variety of large and small businesses, nonprofit organizations, and government institutions.
